Thursday 27 May 2010
6.30pm – 8.30pm

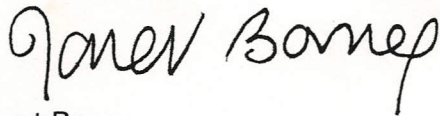

Dear Friend of York Art Gallery

York Museums Trust, in association with the Friends of York Art Gallery, invites you to a private viewing of China: Journey to the East on Thursday 27 May 2010 at 6.30pm.

China is one of the World's greatest civilisations, spanning 3000 years. This major exhibition from the British Museum highlights the impact Chinese history and culture has had on our lives. Over 100 objects explore a range of themes including play, performance, technology, belief, festivals, food, drink, language and writing. China: Journey to the East is supported by BP, a CHINA NOW legacy project and the tour is organised through the British Museum's Partnership UK scheme. During the evening there will also be the opportunity to view the new display, An English Country Garden, in the Gallery of Pots upstairs.

If you are able to attend the evening, I would be grateful if you could reply by filling in the form below by Monday 17 May 2010 and sending it to the Marketing Department at the address below. Alternatively, you can RSVP by email: kelly.mcdonald@ymt.org.uk
